

THY WILL BE DONE SIDE

ROSALINE

Have you been controlling me this whole time?

She stops typing, allowing WILL to rush over to the computer. He tries to type something before being stopped by ROSALINE.

ROSALINE (CONT'D)

Stop. Talk to me, explain what's going on. Does this computer control me?

WILL

You're being irrational, why don't we forget about this and go home for the-

ROSALINE

[Typing] Will explains what's going on to Rosaline.

WILL

I don't know how, I don't know why, but this computer controls whatever I want it to.

ROSALINE

How long?

WILL

How long what?

ROSALINE

How long have you been doing this to me?

WILL

What do you mean? Always.

ROSALINE

You've been following me my entire life, typing what I say?

WILL

I don't need to follow. There is no "you" outside of this office.

ROSALINE

What do you mean? I go home every evening. I have my own apartment; I cook my own meals...

WILL

Tell me about your high school graduation.

ROSALINE

What does that have to do-

WILL

Search your memories, what was your graduation like?

ROSALINE

I...It was... I don't remember.

WILL

Why would you? I never gave you one.

ROSALINE

Why are you doing this?

WILL

Because you'll talk to me. It's beautiful what we have. I get constant companionship; you get to live the perfect happy life.

ROSALINE

But I'm not living it; I'm just a puppet, only alive when you pick me up.

WILL

You won't mind that, just let me fix this.

ROSALINE

All the stuff I did for you, all the stuff you made me do.

WILL

We were happy, the two of us. Let's just forget this.

“WILL” Side

WILL

Don't do this to me. Rosaline? We can be happy. We were once, we will be again. We can be so happy. Just come back, please.

ROSALINE exits. WILL sits at the computer, determined.

WILL (CONT'D)

I will, I'll be happy without you. I'll be just fine and you'll go out and see how tough everything is when it's not controlled and you'll know what it's like to regret a decision. You'll regret and I'll be happy.
